PROFILE { Looking for a design role, capable of fulfilling my creative aspirations and elevate me towards becoming a greater designer than I am already. I am an enthusiastic worker that produces innovative designs, and I take this craft dear to heart. I always aim to improve my skills and surpass myself after each project, to make myself as good as I can be so that I'm ready for any task presented to me.

RELATIVE EXPERIENCE

How far I've come...

Ash's Lounge Restaurant & Cafe

Freelance Designer

JAN 2016 - MAR 2016

Responsibility: Personally responsible for the complete rebranding and reimagining of the company, involving re-creating their logo, photography, menus, posters and further digital artwork.

Advertising: Produced attractive advertising material in-store and for social media, elevating the business' trademark to draw in new customers.

The Christian Eye Newspaper

Freelance Designer

SUMMER 2014 -
SUMMER 2015

Branding: Created new design, format and logo using Adobe software to elevate its aesthetics.

Editing: Edited the articles within the product, ensuring it was easy to read and grammatically correct.

Research: Provided sources of primary and secondary research to see correlations and gather ideas.

ACADEMIC PROJECTS

A few things I've done...

Surrealism Photography Provided high quality photography and creatively imagined surreal, fantastical images with the integration of camera, lighting and post production techniques.

Help for Heroes Ad-campaign for charity. Designed posters, conceptual ideas, promotional videos and user interfaces across mobile devices using Adobe software and drawing utensils.

'Deadpool Insanity' Motion Capture 3D animation. Created a 3D scene featuring 3D characters in a surreal collaboration. The project did well enough to make it into the final year exhibition showreel, and received a great reception.

Urban Life Designed and printed a range of playing cards, posters and a book using Adobe software and illustrations. Promotional campaign design project on Urban Life and the perceptions of it within our world.
